

After Record-Breaking Digital Sales Days, Chipotle And DoorDash Offer Free Delivery This Weekend

Chipotle and DoorDash offer free delivery on orders placed August 3 - August 5

DENVER, Aug. 3, 2018 /PRNEWSWIRE/ -- Chipotle Mexican Grill (NYSE: CMG) announced today that in partnership with DoorDash, customers can enjoy free delivery on orders placed through the DoorDash platform on Friday, August 3 through Sunday, August 5. The promotion applies to any Chipotle order with a $10 minimum (no promo code needed), and will be available in Canada for the first time.

Chipotle is accelerating the growth of its digital platforms to get food to its customers where, how and when they want it. As a result, digital sales are rapidly growing and smashing company records. This week, Chipotle experienced its two highest recorded digital sales days ever when it offered customers free guacamole in celebration of National Avocado Day – the company's first-ever digital only promotion. The promotion resulted in new customer growth and Chipotle was the top trending mobile app in the Apple app store on August 1.

The record-breaking week comes on the heels of Chipotle's wildly successful partnership with DoorDash, and this weekend's free delivery promotion was created to thank customers for the partnership's positive first three months. Announced in late April, the partnership made headlines when it resulted in a nearly 700 percent increase in weekly delivery orders and created Chipotle's largest delivery footprint to-date.

"Chipotle is committed to making our food more accessible for customers," said Curt Garner, chief digital and information officer at Chipotle. "We have a competitive advantage around speed and accuracy with our second make line dedicated to servicing digital orders, as well as our smarter pick-up times technology. As a result, we're seeing strong growth in our digital sales, including from orders placed through DoorDash, our largest on-demand partner. We're excited to celebrate with DoorDash and our customers this weekend with free delivery."

"Chipotle is one of our most-valued restaurant partners," said Christopher Payne, chief operating officer of DoorDash. "We service 70 percent of Chipotle restaurants—reaching over 100 million consumers nationwide— solidifying us as Chipotle's largest logistics partner. We hope this free delivery promotion enables even more customers to see for themselves why DoorDash has become a leader in our industry, and why this partnership has been so successful."
