NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Feb. 3, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Chipotle Mexican Grill (NYSE: CMG) today announced an in-game activation on Sunday, February 8, designed to spotlight its real ingredients and give fans a chance to score up to $1 million in free Chipotle.¹

As AI-generated commercials dominate screens on game day, Chipotle will debut a one-time :30 video on Instagram Reels, titled "The Chipotle Realest 30," featuring a text-to-claim code. The first 100,000 fans to text the code to 888222 will receive a free entrée.¹ The activation underscores Chipotle's commitment to real food made with real ingredients without artificial colors, flavors or preservatives.

Chipotle is also introducing three Game Day Nacho Hacks, available exclusively on the Chipotle app and Chipotle.com from Thursday, February 5 through Sunday, February 8. The digital-only offering gives fans a convenient, shareable game-time appetizer or snack built with Chipotle's real ingredients.

Chipotle's Real Burrito Drop

Instead of airing a traditional commercial during the men's professional American football championship game, Chipotle is highlighting its real ingredients in a way only the brand can.

How It Works:

- At one point after halftime and before the third quarter, when an AI-generated commercial airs, @Chipotle will publish a one-time Reel on Instagram, called "The Chipotle Realest 30," featuring a text-to-claim code.
- The first 100,000 fans who text the code to 888222 will receive a free entrée. Ordinary text and data rates apply.

"With our real ingredients, we don't use any artificial colors, flavors, or preservatives on our menu—so when AI shows up in a TV ad after halftime, we're seizing that one moment to reward fans with what they really want: real food," said Stephanie Perdue, Interim Chief Marketing Officer of Chipotle.
